

JUVENILE COURT, DELAWARE COUNTY, OHIO

IN THE MATTER OF:

Case No.

Alleged juvenile traffic offender

The following information constitutes the arraignment and your rights in Juvenile Court for complaints as an alleged juvenile traffic offender.

1. You may be represented by an attorney and can be granted a continuance for an opportunity to consult with an attorney on your request.
2. An attorney will be appointed for you if you so request, if you and your parents are indigent, being without funds or property to hire an attorney, for some more serious citations.
3. You may admit the charge or deny the charge and have a trial to the court.
4. The charge must be proven by proof beyond a reasonable doubt.
5. You may cross-examine and ask questions of any witness who testifies to prove the charge.
6. You may testify yourself, if you wish.
7. You cannot be compelled to testify against yourself, and you may remain silent on a denial at trial.
8. You may call anyone to testify upon your request. The witnesses you wish to testify can be compelled to appear for you by filing with the court a request, in writing, called precipe for subpoena, stating the name and address of the witness, and if they can be located by the sheriff prior to trial, they will be required to attend.
9. A record or recording will be made of any hearing, if you so request, at any time.
