FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Delaware County Commissioners Honored Marvin and Shirley Philpott upon their Induction into the Central Ohio Senior Citizens Hall of Fame

Delaware, Ohio—In today's session, the Delaware County Commissioners honored two Delaware County residents upon their selection for induction into the Central Ohio Senior Citizens Hall of Fame. Marvin and Shirley Philpott were nominated by the Council for Older Adults and will be inducted next week during the Hall of Fame annual ceremony.

Commission President Gary Merrell presented the proclamation saying "The Delaware County Board of Commissioners is proud to honor older individuals who have volunteered their time to serve others in their community. Marvin and Shirley Philpott are being honored for their love of community and the inspiration they bring to young and old alike."

Together Marvin and Shirley have volunteered more than 7,600 hours with the Meals-on-Wheels program at the Council of Older Adults and another 3,200 plus hours at Grady Memorial Hospital. They have mentored, recruited, and trained new volunteers, staffed committees to improve volunteer programs, and promoted an inclusive, welcoming atmosphere for new volunteers.
