Delaware County—High Water Closes sections of roadways in Delaware County

With heavy rain throughout Delaware County, we are experiencing high water on several roadways.

The following sections of road are actually closed and should be avoided:

St. Rt. 257 and Hoskins Road

St. Rt. 257 and Radnor Road

Horseshoe Road and St. Rt. 229 intersection all the way to Leonardsburg

Remember, if there is potential flooding on the roadway, the safest thing is to turn your car around and take a detour.

###

Established in 1808, Delaware County is located in the center of Ohio, is 459 square miles in size, and serves our almost 190,000 residents. With 1100+ employees and a general fund budget of $45 million, Delaware County is one of the top 50 employers in central Ohio and continues to be the fastest growing county in the state.
